The Twenty-Ninth Annual Report

OF THE

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT

OF THE

Board of Missions for Freedmen

OF THE

Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

---

Since the Kingdom of God and His righteousness takes the first place in Christ's teaching to His disciples, and is vital to our religion, we may say to the audience gathered here, in the words of our President, in his inaugural address: "This is not a day of triumph but a day of dedication. Here muster the forces for humanity and for salvation."

We are not done with the battle against sin. We cannot lay our armor down until the Kingdoms of this world become the Kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ. We must seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

We can only have what we give, and in recounting the records of this last year of service in this mission field, we are showing how our church has been reaching out the helping hand in carrying out the program of Jesus, "Preaching the Gospel to the poor, healing the broken hearted, preaching deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

As we review what has been done, and get a vision of what might have been done, may the spirit of the Lord be upon us to enable us to dedicate ourselves more fully to His service.

The aim of our Department the last year was to reach $90,000 that our Board might be able to "lengthen the cords and strengthen the stakes" in our school work; but again we have to record disappointment, for while we do have a small gain over the total amount received last year, yet we fall far below our aim. We have not quite reached the amount we received two years ago. Then we felt we could safely ask and expect an advance of $4,000, which would give us the $90,000 which our Board had asked us to secure.

The following figures will show the amounts received through our Woman's Department and from whence they came:

|                        |             |                |            |
|------------------------|-------------|----------------|------------|
| Woman's Societies..... | $65,662.00 | an increase of | $3,368.42 |
| Sabbath Schools.....   | 7,958.50    | an increase of | 817.24     |
| Young Peoples.....     | 9,520.95    | a decrease of  | 1,087.47   |
| Individuals .....      | 1,007.25    | a decrease of  | 1,019.90   |
| Misc. Sources.....     | 907.39      | a decrease of  | 677.19     |
| Legacies .....         | 150.00      | a decrease of  | 527.46     |
| <hr/>                  |             |                |            |
| Total.....             | $85,236.09 | an increase of | $1,727.10 |

3591 Woman's Societies contributed—133 more in number than last year. 675 Sabbath Schools contributed through the Woman's Department and 661 sent direct to the Board, making 1046 Sabbath Schools contributing to Freedmen, an increase of 28. The Young People's Societies contributing are 1082, a decrease of 64. We regret this very much. The Young People will soon be the church bearers, and should be regular loyal supporters of all the mission Boards.

These figures show the money received and the number of organizations interested in this work of giving the Gospel to the Negroes of our fields. There is still much land to be possessed, an obligation resting on every organization of every church.

We now have 136 schools with 16,427 students, a gain of 5 schools, and over 1000 students. This record will not be complete if we do not speak of the hundreds who had to be refused admittance because of no room. Where so little advance is made in offerings, the multitudes go hungry.

School Work

This year has been one of blessings for our field. No calamities have been permitted to visit our schools, such as we have had to record some years. The winter has been mild, this making fuel expenses lighter, and things more comfortable.

The reports from our various schools which come to the Board monthly have been very satisfactory, showing earnestness of purpose and diligent effort.

Much spiritual interest has been manifest in schools and in churches, many students professing faith in Christ and uniting with our own or other denominations. Our teachers are striving to implant high ideals which will help to mold the lives of these students for the service of God and of righteousness.

It is no light responsibility to be leading over 16,000 students to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Every little beam of light reflected through these lives will help to open the blind eyes, lift up the bruised hearts and preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Have you had a share in furnishing the oil for these human lamps?

Many graduates will go out from our advanced schools to take their places in life for the uplift of their fellowmen; some to preach, some to teach, some to become home makers, others to various trades and daily toil. They go to live the Christian life, and become leaders of their people.

A Christian citizen always makes for the betterment of the community. As we strengthen the homes of our land we strengthen our nation, and in such work our schools have not labored in vain.

Many of our students go out to seek employment for the summer that they may earn money to return to school again in the fall, and many more find that the necessity of earning a living precludes much school privilege; perhaps nearly two-thirds of our students are in this latter class. One or two terms of school mean their education, hence it is so necessary that the Bible be a daily study, and that Christian living be specially emphasized. The school life is the best time to teach them to put first things first, giving them that which will count in Eternity.

Building Fund

This was used to its full limit this last year, and did not reach as far as we had planned. When the money for this purpose is done the work must stop and wait another year. Building material and labor cost so much and very often run over our calculations and these things have to be handled with great care that no debt be incurred.

The wishes and plans cannot always be carried out, and the schools and we have to be satisfied with what the money can do, not what we wish, and equipment and furnishing have to be held down to the greatest necessities.

McMillan Hall at Mary Allen Seminary, Crockett, Texas, was burned over a year ago, and had to be rebuilt last summer. The insurance would not begin to replace such a building as the one destroyed, so plans had to be studied with the greatest care and economy, delays occurred, and the building was not completed until November, a month after school opened, but at last was in condition to be used, which greatly relieved the inconvenience and strain upon teachers and students. When the building is entirely completed this summer this school will again be in shape to do its best work.

Swift College, Rogersville, Tenn., has been begging for years for more room, to relieve their crowded conditions. Last summer two wings were planned on the main building, and one of these completed and furnished, which relieved the crowded situation to some extent, and this summer we will have to take some of our precious building fund to complete the other wing. This College has been fortunate in securing, through the generosity of Mrs. Swift and Rev. Dr. Franklin, several acres of good land adjoining the school, which will furnish work for the boys, and a good garden.

A nice new building was erected for the Newton School, Chattanooga, Tennessee. Zanesville Presbyterial, which pays Mrs. Wilson's salary there, very generously gave an extra offering of $600, that more conveniences and better equipment could be had, which all greatly appreciated.

Two modest school houses were erected, one at Chesterfield, S. C., the other in Va., that the ministers and wives might carry on their school work with more comfort and convenience. It is not an easy thing to teach 100 to 150 children in a small church building.

Many other such places are waiting their turn. At Coulter Memorial School, Cheraw, S. C., we helped with some improvements but not at all what their work demands. Rev. G. W. Long says that if the Board will give him the building and teachers he can have 500 students.

At Gillespie School, Cordele, Ga., some improvements were made and more needed. Our schools soon outgrow their accommodations. Repairs were made in several other schools and still the call goes on. Our Building Fund is just as necessary as our salaries and scholarships, so that those begging for admission may be taken care of and taught the ways of righteousness.

Industrial Work

At the General Assembly in Louisville, Ky., our Board had an exhibit of some of the work done in various schools, which was very creditable to our students, an education to those who took the time to examine the display.

Many persons have a very vague idea of what the work of our Board is, and as "Seeing is believing" we again are having the exhibit at the General Assembly, as much of our school industries as we can bring to such a place. We cannot bring much of the cooking, the laundry work, the house keeping taught to the girls, nor the farming, the blacksmithing, the brick laying, the printing and other things taught to the boys, but what we do have will surely make you want to know more. Be sure to visit this exhibit in the Freedmen's room in the Tabernacle, and see and learn much of interest, "Do not despise the day of small things" in this field, they are climbing.

The Freedmen's cause has been presented faithfully where ever opportunity affords by your Secretaries, and also by teachers from the field, in Synodicals, Presbyterials and local Societies, with the hope of educating the people in the work and its needs, and inciting new interest, and helping them to realize the obligations resting on every organization of our Presbyterian church to support this Board.

Loyalty to your own denomination does not make you narrow. We are one regiment under one great Commander, who is leading His army through the whole world conquering Satan's Kingdom, and for the establishment of His own. His ideal "The whole world for Christ" and as His army is faithful just so fast will His Kingdom be hastened.

Canvassing our church is not play, and to our teachers from the South it is a new and trying experience. The travel, the rush and crowds of the cities, the many trains, the "Subways," the "Elevated," the great buildings—and addressing white audiences—all this is so different from their usual life that the wonder is that they can do it at all. All who hear them will testify that their efforts have been most creditable and interesting, and show such a Christian spirit and bearing that deserves special commendation.

May all these efforts tell for good in your offerings and your prayers, that the Board may be able to reach out to the "land yet to be possessed."

"If you have anything to give
That anothers joy may live
Give it."

You have Christ the precious Saviour, what greater joy can you give and have than to share Him with these who so long for the light. To neglect to do so will be our undoing.

Knowing

"The April Home Mission Monthly," the "Home Mission Extra for April," the May, "Over Sea and Land" will all give you glimpses of our field and of your work. We thank the Woman's Board and the Editors of the Magazines for this yearly privilege, which our Board much appreciates.

We also thank the Treasurer of the Woman's Board for her kindness and patience in transmitting the Freedmen's funds to our Board each month. We cannot pray for this work to grow less, but we do pray for blessings upon all those who care for it.

Our study book "The American Negro," our leaflets, our stereopticon slides, and any information we can give are all at the command of the Woman's Societies, the Young People and Sabbath Schools, something for each. What ever you want ask for it, write to us at 513 Bessemer Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. Please do not forget and write to the Woman's Board for Freedmen information or literature—for they just have the expense and labor of forwarding your requests to us.

Box Work

This has its place in our field, and helps to make comfortable many poor people, but do not let it take the place of money contributions.

Evangelistic

Our missionary Rev. J. J. Wilson has through the year done great good to schools and churches. The Holy Spirit has been present with power in his meetings with blessed results. The fruits of such a work are so apparent that he has far more calls than he can possibly fill, and a kind friend has offered a salary for another man, that more of the 16 Presbyteries may be visited.

The Negro needs just what the white man needs, to be helped to a closer walk with God, and this comes through the Holy Spirit's power and Christian fellowship.

Four of our teachers have been called to the higher service during the year. Two of them had been teaching for about twenty-four years.

We thank all the Synodicals for their faithful support—several made advance—and for this we especially commend them. Had all done so we would have had our $90,000. The advance must be by personal effort, each giving a small amount more than the year before, and by securing offerings from their Young People and Sabbath Schools. This will all depend on each local society—for these are the prime movers in missions—Presbyterial and Synodical can not advance unless the Local Auxiliary does. See to it that you know what is asked of every organization.

The Freedmen's apportionments were sent out in January with those of the Woman's Board to Synodical officers, they to apportion the amount Presbyterially, so that by this time all should know that for the third time we are aiming for $90,000 for salaries, scholarships and building fund. We are trusting this to the good will of every organization of our church. We have a right to ask this, a small share of your offerings, because our General Assembly recommends it, "Freely ye have received, freely give."

Our Board's receipts have fallen off over $20,000 this last year, so plans for extension of our work will have to again wait. This shortage is in legacies, so it is comforting to think that the churches are making some advance.

We are standing on the threshold of another year of service. It is God's work and we commend it to Him and to our church organizations to carry out His command.

The day of our visitation is here. Do we realize that Jesus visits us in every opportunity, in every call? Will He say of us, "If thou hadst only known in this thy day, the things that belong to thy peace?" Some day they will be hid from our eyes.

Will you give and pray that the work may be prospered and more schools made possible?

The great Mosaic of God's Kingdom is now being made. Let us gather up the bits and fragments in this field that nothing be lost, and bring them to Him that He may fit them into the beautiful finished picture of the Kingdom of God and His righteousness which is the answer to that prayer "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." It will come. Jesus never would have taught that prayer were it not to be fulfilled.

Our concern should be, are we helping or hindering?

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN L. STORER, Secretary.

AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

To this General Assembly the College Board has the honor of submitting its Thirtieth Annual Report. Three decades have passed since a new agency was established for the purpose of promoting the cause of Christian education, particularly in the growing West; and while the Church has not yet overtaken its great opportunities, there is reason to rejoice in what has been accomplished. This thirty-year period has been more fully reviewed in a pamphlet entitled, "Presbyterian Colleges," which the Board has just issued, but the Board summarizes here the growth of the thirty years.

In 1883 there were but twenty Presbyterian colleges, including Princeton and Hamilton. In round numbers the Church now has sixty colleges. To be sure, a few of them are not fully up to present-day standards, but it is well known that the college standard has been raised greatly during the last generation.

In 1883 the report of the Commissioner of Education gave the value of the property and endowment of Presbyterian colleges as $5,541,000. The present value of the property and endowment of our colleges is approximately $32,000,000.

In 1883 the reports showed 2,212 students in the college departments of Presbyterian institutions. To-day we have 7,770 college students and a total of 21,731 students in all departments of our Presbyterian colleges.

Of all the colleges now in connection with the College Board, eight were received with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and thirty-two were organized or developed from academies into colleges since the organization of the Board.

During this same period the Board has received and now holds trust funds, designated and undesignated, to the amount of $1,003,000, the income of which is to be used for the promotion of Christian education.

The great and pressing needs of our colleges and the large sections of the country not yet provided with educational facilities of high grade and of positive Christian type so impress us all with the sense of responsibility for the work yet to be done that we sometimes lose sight of the progress made, but it is evident that much has been already accomplished and that the Board and the Church have good reason to thank God and take courage.

EDUCATIONAL POLICY OF THE CHURCH.

A year ago the official conference of our college presidents requested the College Board to hold conferences with the Board of Education for the purpose of presenting to the Church "a consistent educational policy."

A Committee of this Board held conferences with a committee selected by the Board of Education, and certain resolutions were agreed upon by the representatives of the two Boards. Though the second conference, held on April 30, came too late for the College Board to have opportunity formally to act on the resolutions agreed to by its representatives, the resolutions are printed as a part of this report and are as follows:

"Resolved, I. That it is the sense of this Conference of representatives of the College Board and the Board of Education that the maintenance of the Christian college is essential to a Christian civilization and fundamental to the life of the Church in the development of the body of trained leadership for the work at home and abroad, and that the gifts of Christians can be no more worthily bestowed than upon Christian colleges which are raising their standards of efficiency both in their cultural courses and in their output of ministerial and lay workers.

"II. That the care for the religious life of Presbyterian students, whether attending State universities, Church colleges or independent colleges, is of vital importance, and that in prosecuting this work the Board of Education deserves the support of all the Church.

"III. That the distinction between the work of the Board of Education and the College Board is clearly and definitely made in the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1909, viz.:

" 'The College Board has to do with Presbyterian institutions, and not with students, while the Board of Education has to do with students in all kinds of higher institutions, and not with the endowment or helping of any kind of educational institutions, except only that it may co-operate with Synods which may seek to establish or maintain houses for the religious care of Presbyterian students in institutions that are not under Presbyterian control.' (Page 221, par. 2, Minutes of the Assembly, 1909.)

"We believe that both Boards are living up to the Assembly's definition of their relative scope of work."

It is believed that by these conferences progress has been made toward "a consistent educational policy." It is conceivable that the Church might have an inconsistent policy or two educational policies mutually repellant. If, for instance, the Church should be in the attitude of calling upon its members to contribute for the support of Christian colleges while at the same time it encouraged its youth to attend only State institutions, it could properly be adjudged inconsistent. But this is not the case. The Church as a whole and all of its educational agencies are committed to the historic position that the Church should support, and that its members should patronize, the Christian college as the very best and the most effective institution for providing a full and well-rounded education.

It is possible that the reason why some have concluded that the Church is encouraging two contradictory policies is because while the Church has recently placed great, though not undue, emphasis upon the importance of caring for the religious development of students in State universities, it has not at the same time placed sufficient emphasis upon the necessity for providing institutions distinctively Christian in their teaching and atmosphere. This Board is of the opinion that any misunderstanding as to the policy of the Church will be allayed if the Church will address itself anew to the important task of instructing its whole constituency concerning the incompleteness of an education which lacks the religious element.

New Conditions.

The Church as it expresses itself through its judicatories and agencies has not swerved from its historic policy; but we must remember that in the educational world, as elsewhere, times have changed, and the people at large always become affected by, and give expression to, current ideals, even though such ideals never become fixed in the minds of leaders. At the time when the educational policy of the Church was first outlined there was practically no education by the State. Indeed, it was the Church which taught the State the duty of providing for the education of its youth. Now, however, the greater part of all education is provided by the State. Along the way from the old to the new condition of affairs, the Church encountered an educational definition and an educational ideal which were practically unheard of at the beginning of the journey. The new definition was to the effect that education has nothing to do with religion, and the new ideal suggested that all education, save theological, might well be handed over to the State. There are certainly some who hold to the view that the Church should go entirely out of business as an educational force in the college field, and others ask the question whether it is longer necessary to maintain the Church college; but it is safe to say to-day that the newer definition has been practically abandoned. The educational world is nearly of one accord in the view that the dominant aim of all education must be the formation of character.

Possibly the Presbyterian Church has been taking it for granted that all Presbyterians—long noted for their educational leadership—are rooted and grounded in the faith that the Christian college is essential not only to the life of the Church but to the well-being of the State. But, in view of changed conditions and the confusion of thought which has resulted, it becomes imperative that the Church should present anew the reason for the faith that is in her, and so earnestly and effectively that all of her members will be convinced that the reason is good and sufficient. The members of the Church must come to the conviction that the highest type of Christian patriotism demands that the Christian college shall be not only maintained, but speedily so equipped and endowed that it may fill the large part which is required of it in these days of astonishing educational development.

The principle upon which the Church undertakes educational work is that there can be no complete education without religion.

The aim of the Church in the work of education is that there may be produced a trained leadership and a virile and intelligent Christian citizenship.

The methods by which the Church seeks to accomplish its aim may be reduced to two: (1) Definite religious instruction, and (2) the creation of an environment of positive Christian influence.

The agencies of the Presbyterian Church for the accomplishment of this end (excluding missionary fields) are three:

The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the Board of Education and the College Board.

The institutions through which the aim is to be accomplished are the home, the local church and the school.

The Agencies for the Work.

Coming now to consider more particularly the agencies through which the educational work of the Church is carried forward, that portion which must be conducted primarily by the home and the local church has been committed to the oversight of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and its scope and method have been comprehensively outlined by the General Assembly, particularly through the recent excellent reports of the Special Committee on Religious Education. With reference to this part of the task, it will be generally admitted that the Church holds that while children live in their homes the primary agency for religious instruction must be the home itself, supplemented by the Sabbath-school and other organizations of the local church.

The remainder of the educational work of the Church has to do with students who are in schools above the grammar grades, the rule being that during the school terms these students are living away from their homes. This portion of the task has been divided between the Board of Education and the College Board, and the line of demarcation has been sharply drawn by the Assembly, which has declared that the work of the Board of Education is to be with and for individual students and the work of the College Board with and for educational institutions, the word "institutions" being further limited by the fact that no agency of the Church can establish, assist or shape the policies of any institution of learning except those which are vitally allied with the Church.

In view of this division of labor, it becomes the duty of the Board of Education to look after the spiritual welfare of students wherever they may be found, whether singly or in groups, to the end that such students may become Christian citizens and, especially, that many of them may become Christian leaders not only in the ministry and on mission fields, but in all walks of life. On the other hand, it is the duty of the College Board to encourage the provision and to assist in the maintenance of institutions which are designed especially to give the country Christian leaders, and to see to it, so far as lies in its power, that these institutions are of such a type, with respect to both their educational standards and their positive Christian influence, as actually to produce the character of citizenship and leadership for the production of which the Church maintains these schools.

State versus Church Schools.

From this analysis it appears that the activity of the Church in behalf of the religious life of students at State Universities falls under the supervision of the Board of Education rather than of the College Board, for the Board of Education deals with individual students and not with educational institutions. The Church has no power to control a State institution in such a manner that it will provide religious instruction and environment; hence, whatever is done for the religious culture of students in such an institution must be done by an outside agency supplementing the work of the university and not by the university itself. It is no part of the policy of the Presbyterian Church to encourage undergraduate students to attend institutions which fail to provide for religious instruction and environment in preference to those which do make such provision, but it is part of the policy of the Church to attempt to bring religious influence to bear on students wherever they may be found. While the Church must seek to minister effectively to students who are in institutions which make no direct effort for the religious training and development of the youth committed to their care, yet the Church and all three of the agencies which are appointed to promote the religious education of youth are firmly convinced that the most effective religious education can come only as a part of the work of the educational institution itself. When a great educational institution maintained by the liberality of the State is unable to make upon the student, day after day, the impression that religious culture is an essential part of that progress by which the personality is developed into true manhood, then the most earnest efforts of the Church for the religious development of such students are seriously handicapped by virtue of the very attitude of that college or university. Therefore the Church has always urged and does now urge upon parents the duty of placing their boys and girls in those Christian colleges which aim to give a complete rather than a partial education, for to provide education minus religion is to launch upon the sea of life a full-rigged ship without a rudder.

A Work of Synthesis.

While the educational work of the Church has been somewhat thoroughly analyzed and portions of the whole committed to special agencies, we venture the suggestion that there is a work of synthesis which has been somewhat neglected, and this work, in our judgment, can best be done by the three Boards working together in the closest coöperation. The cause of Christian education is one, and it is only as the fundamental principle upon which the Church builds all of its educational work is laid deep in the hearts of its members that any of the parts of the whole task can be carried to successful issue.

Unless people believe that education is dangerously incomplete without religion, they will not give diligent heed to the necessity for the religious instruction of their children in home and Sunday-school and young people's society, nor will they provide adequate equipment for such instruction. Indeed, it is only this faith which will revive the family altar and cause men and women to devote themselves to the perfection of the Sunday-school system.

Unless Christians accept the principle that religion is essential to a complete education, they will not give of their means for the maintenance of Christian colleges nor for the provision of a religious atmosphere and influence at our State universities.

Unless the people believe in the necessity of religious instruction, there will soon be no material for the Christian ministry and no demand for such a ministry even if it could be provided.

Fundamental, then, to the specific work of these three agencies of the Church is a propaganda which shall awaken to new life the slumbering tradition that Presbyterians really believe in Christian education, and we believe the three Boards can and should devise a plan by which they may work together as one in laying upon the hearts of the people the importance of giving to the youth of to-day that vision and that power which made our forefathers so influential in shaping the destinies of the nation and in leading the Church into world-wide missionary activities.

PLACE OF THE CHURCH COLLEGE.

It is now generally agreed that the burden of religious education is on the Church. We are told that the Church must make provision for such education or our youth must go without. The Special Committee on Religious Education has emphasized this truth.

It is agreed, too, that while children live in the home the Church must seek to discharge its duty as religious educator mainly through the home itself and the organizations of the local church. But when the boy leaves home, what then? Has the Church no further duty? Rather it has a double duty. In brief, the duty is this: it should provide an institution which, as nearly as possible, shall take the place of the home.

It may not be the duty of the Church to educate a boy in science and art or even in the humanities, but it is the duty of the Church to develop youth into Christian manhood. Therefore, because multitudes of boys and girls do go away from home in order to be educated in science and art, the Church must maintain truly Christian schools in which the boys and girls may receive this higher education and at the same time be developed and strengthened in Christian character. Nor is the end in view accomplished merely by adding religious instruction to the other courses. Something more than instruction is needed. It is the wise and loving guidance of the young life in its development, that it may steadily grow unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

For the Making of Manhood.

The fact should be emphasized that the Church is in the business of educating youth for the purpose of making MEN. No one should object if institutions founded and fostered by the Church enlarge their scope, but the aim of the Church and the reason why its members are called upon to maintain schools are not to provide only special training, but to develop boys and girls into cultured Christian manhood and womanhood. The Church could afford to leave special and professional training to other institutions as it leaves ministerial training to the theological seminaries, but all experience goes to prove that for the development of Christian manhood the very best educational institution is the true Christian college, where are most nearly supplied the influence, direction and instruction which should characterize the Christian home, and the Church must maintain institutions of this type.

The important period in the life of a youth, the period which gives the final color to his character, purpose and world-view, may be roughly described as the period between the ages of fourteen and twenty. Through the greater part of this period he is a boy. During the latter part of it the youth may be described as alternately boy and man, for it is a transition period during which he is neither boy nor man all the time. At this time he requires the most careful and sympathetic guidance for the proper development of the manhood which is struggling for supremacy, and his needs during this period can best be met by an educational institution which is designed especially for the purpose.

The true university and the professional school exist primarily for the training of persons who have attained to manhood. Their methods are usually such as are suitable to graduates rather than undergraduates, and their emphasis is likely to be upon subjects rather than upon individual development; hence their general atmosphere cannot be so beneficial to the boy (he may be more accurately described as the near-man) as is the atmosphere of an institution which aims primarily to develop individual lives. As such development is the business of the Church, it is to the maintenance of institutions of the latter type that the Church should bend its energies, and through such institutions it should exercise its educational ministry. Upon the faithfulness with which it discharges this duty depends in large measure the future of the Church, the perpetuity of its benevolent institutions, the production of a Christian citizenship and the stability of the nation itself.

STANDARDIZATION.

A year ago the conference of presidents of Presbyterian colleges agreed upon a standard for our Presbyterian institutions, and during the year the Board has devoted much attention to the task of learning the exact facts concerning each of our educational institutions, in order that they might be classified under this standard.

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT.

During the year the Board has formally erected a Department of Publicity and Extension, the purpose of which is to diffuse more generally a knowledge of the work and needs of our Presbyterian colleges and especially to lay upon the hearts of ministers and laymen the importance of a truly Christian education for the sake of a strong Christian citizenship, and to interest the friends of Christian education in the financial welfare of our colleges. This is part of the Board's effort to carry out the recommendations of the Assembly of 1911 for the enlargement of the work.

EDUCATION WEEK.

The Board respectfully asks the Assembly to grant the request made in the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly has previously approved of the observance of Young People's Day, the Day of Prayer for Colleges, Education Day and Vocation Day, and

WHEREAS, The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the Board of Education and the College Board are agreed that they all have a vital interest in laying upon the heart of the Church the importance of religious education and the guidance of the youth of the Church into Christian life and service; therefore,

Resolved, That this Board hoping for the concurrence of the other two Boards, requests the General Assembly to designate the eight days beginning with the first Sunday in February, 1914, as Education Week, the first Sunday to be observed as Young People's Day and Vocation Day, the second Sunday as Education Day, and the Thursday between as the Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges.

LEGACIES AND GIFTS.

During the year the Board was the grateful recipient of a further payment of $20,949.25 on the legacy of the late John Stewart Kennedy, and of the following other legacies: Elizabeth Boyd, Carrollton, Ohio, $500; Mary W. Laird, Lewisburg, Pa., $100; Amelia S. Perrin, Carrollton, Ill., $41.83, and the estate of W. W. Atterbury, of New York, $7,500. In addition, it received the sum of $950 from the estate of the late Dr. Samuel Hall, of New York, designated for Washington College.

Through these legacies the works of those who have entered into rest still follow them and, on behalf of the Church, the Board expresses its appreciation of the thoughtfulness which made this provision for the cause of Christian education. Living donors have also contributed with great liberality during the year, and the Board recognizes with much gratitude the evidences of increasing devotion to this cause on the part of both individuals and congregations; a complete summary of the gifts is set forth in the Report of the Treasurer, and the Board hereby expresses its thanks to the 5,366 churches which contributed a total of $111,358.96. From the Board, through the Board and from individuals directly, the colleges received last year the splendid total of $1,281,445.73.

ASSOCIATE SECRETARY.

The Board at a meeting held on September 24, 1912, elected the Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D., of Nashville, Tenn., Associate Secretary, to fill the place of Gilbert A. Beaver, resigned. Dr. Clarke has served as a member of the Board for seven years, giving much attention to the reorganization of the work as directed by the General Assembly of 1904. He is particularly well informed on college conditions in the Synods of the South and Southwest, and to that large part of our territory he will give the principal part of his time, having headquarters in Nashville, Tenn.

TREASURER.

Mr. Henry L. Smith, a member of this Board and an elder in the Brick Church of New York, now retired from the responsibilities of business manager for Charles Scribner's Sons, has been elected Treasurer of this Board, and acts as such without salary or other compensation, freely giving his services for the cause of Christian education. The Church is to be congratulated on thus securing Mr. Smith's business experience and Christian training, and the Board wishes to put on record its appreciation of his valuable services during the past year. Mr. Brauer, our Office Secretary, still continues as Assistant Treasurer.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Board records with deep sorrow the loss by death of another of its faithful members, Hon. Edward O. Emerson, of Titusville, Pa., a member of the Board since 1904 and for a much longer period a liberal giver for the support of Presbyterian colleges.

THE CONSTITUTION AND POLICY OF THE BOARD.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD.

AS AMENDED IN MAY, 1909.

At its meeting held at Buffalo, New York, May, 1904, the General Assembly adopted a Constitution for this Board, which is as follows:

1. The name of this Board shall be THE COLLEGE BOARD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, and the general work shall be such as is indicated by its title. It may aid academies in its discretion in the matter of current support, but shall not seek endowment for such institutions.

2. The Board shall consist of twenty-seven members, one-half of whom shall be and two-thirds of whom may be laymen. They shall be divided into three classes, one class to be elected each year by the General Assembly. The Board shall have power to fill vacancies.

3. The officers of the Board shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

4. The headquarters of the Board shall be at New York and the Executive Committee of the Board shall be residents in New York or in the immediate vicinity.

5. The College Board shall be the agency of the Church for the following purposes:

(a) To secure and receive moneys and other property for the benefit of any needy college or university which is (1) organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or (2) required by its charter to have at least two-thirds of its Board of Control members of said Church, or (3) actually under Presbyterian approval at the time of receiving assistance.*

(b) To cooperate with such institutions as it is authorized to assist, as promote and maintain high educational standards, spiritual culture and thorough Bible teaching, to the end that persons contributing funds for such institutions may be assured that their students will be under positive Christian influences.

*"The words 'Presbyterian approval' mean that a synod or presbytery may send a committee of visitation to any college to learn the quality of the work done by it, and to report thereon; or it may receive a written or an oral report by the president or other appointed officer of the college on the quality of the work done, and express its approval or disapproval accordingly, and transmit its findings to this Board for the adjustment of its relations to said college."—Adopted by the General Assembly, 1911.

(c) To awaken interest, diffuse information, and stimulate prayer in behalf of the institutions which it is authorized to assist.

(d) To coöperate with the institutions which it is authorized to aid, and assist in securing endowments for them.

(e) To coöperate with local agencies in determining sites for such new institutions as it is authorized to assist, and in consolidating weak institutions.

(f) To decide for which of the institutions it is authorized to assist it will seek endowments, and to which of them it will make grants for current expenses.

(g) Secure an annual offering from the churches.

6. The Board shall call an Annual Conference of Presbyterian Colleges to advise the Board and to coöperate in securing the desired results.

7. The funds received by the Board shall be devoted either to the endowment or to the current expenses of colleges, and shall be secured:

(a) By special applications for endowment, under the approval and general direction of the Board.

(b) By annual offerings from the churches.

8. (a) Every college hereafter (1883) established, as a condition of receiving aid, shall be organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or by perpetual Charter provision shall have two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church.

(b) In case of colleges already established, and not included under the above provisions, appropriations for endowment shall be so made as to revert to the Board whenever these colleges shall pass from Presbyterian control.

(c) In all other respects the disbursement of funds by the Board shall be wholly discretionary with the Board, both as to amount and direction, subject always to the control of the General Assembly.

(d) The Board shall endeavor to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums and from what sources are given to this cause.

9. It shall be the policy of the Board to limit the number of colleges in any region, so as to secure strong institutions rather than many weak ones, and in carrying out this policy colleges may be consolidated when deemed advisable by the Board. Colleges coming into existence without the approval of the Board, and colleges which refuse to consolidate when so directed by the Board may be denied aid from the Board.

THE POLICY OF THE BOARD.

The Policy of the Board is based on the Constitution framed for it by the Church through the General Assembly in 1883, 1904, 1908, 1909 and is summed up in one word—Co-operation.

The Board will co-operate (1) with givers, (2) with Presbyterian Colleges, and (3) with both givers and colleges to secure co-operation between them.

1. Co-operation with Givers.

The Board will endeavor to awaken, inform and stimulate the Church in behalf of Presbyterian Colleges.

It will offer the fullest and most reliable information, both about the college cause and the individual college, and regarding the relation of the Church to education and its colleges.

It will in no way try to dominate givers and their gifts, but will seek only to ascertain and carry out the desires of givers.

It will seek to safeguard funds committed to it or secured with its co-operation, as givers may desire, or, when no desire is expressed, as the interests of the colleges and the Church require.

It will, when desired to do so, act as Trustee of funds committed to it, investing them with paramount consideration of safety; holding them permanently if the giver so directs, or, if the giver prefer, temporarily, until conditions prescribed by the giver are fully met, disbursing the income derived from them in accordance with the wish of the giver.

It is instructed by the Assembly to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its Treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums, and from what sources, are given to this cause.

2. Co-operation with Colleges.

A Presbyterian College is one which either (1) Is organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, owned or controlled by an ecclesiastical corporation of the Church ; or (2) By perpetual charter provision has two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church ; or (3) Is affiliated with this Church by the predominance of adherents of this Church in its foundations, Board of Control, Faculty and student body. The term "College" is commonly used herein as including universities.

The Board will seek neither to dominate colleges nor to carry them. It will co-operate with them.

Colleges not yet recognized in the Board's report, desiring approval and co-operation, are requested to send to the Board's office for blanks on which report of their ecclesiastical, educational and financial status may be submitted to the Board.

The Annual College Conference will be asked to act in an advisory capacity toward the Board in all matters in which an ecclesiastical corporation, administering trust funds, may properly accept information, opinions and advice from a body of experts in educational matters and college detail.

The Board will seek primarily to stimulate colleges to self-help, and their home fields to the utmost limit of support and endowment because a college, to have a hopeful future, must ordinarily be strongly based in the affection, prayer and giving of its vicinage.

To co-operate in securing endowment for the colleges is an important function of the Board and to that it will give much attention. Co-operation with colleges which have little or no endowment, in securing aid for current expenses until their endowments are reasonably adequate, is a necessary missionary function, and for this cause the Board solicits and expects annual collections from all our churches.

AID FOR CURRENT EXPENSES.

Applications.

The Board will consider applications for annual aid toward current expenses of such colleges as are organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. or as are required by their charters to have at least two-thirds of their Boards of Control members of said Church.

Application is to be made by the Trustees of the College, in formal meeting, filling out a blank which the Secretary will furnish on request and will send to aided institutions April 1. Applications must be in the Secretary's hands by May 1. If the Trustees cannot meet in time for this, the Executive Committee should send an application as nearly as possible like that which the Trustees will probably adopt; and the formal application, adopted by the Trustees, should reach the Secretary as soon as possible. Applications made for the first time should be accompanied by the fullest information regarding the history and prospects of the institution.

Board Action on Applications.

The Annual Board Meeting for voting on applications is held on the first Tuesday in June. Institutions withholding applications beyond the date of the meeting, and giving no satisfactory explanation of the delay, will be regarded as expecting no aid from the Board for the ensuing year. Applications not on file for the Board at its June meeting cannot be acted on until the next meeting, in November, and then only if unexpected funds for that purpose have come into its possession.

The Board will vote at the Annual Meeting appropriations to the amount covering its expected available resources from church collections for the current Church year.

Synod's Approval and Endorsement of Applications.

Applications for aid for current expenses must have the Synod's formal approval of the college endorsed thereon; applications of academies, similarly the approval of their Presbyteries. The endorsement of Synod or Presbytery is not the endorsement of the amount asked for, but the endorsement of the college as worthy to receive aid for current expense from the Board, in such amount as the Board may be able to grant. Yet, as there is often no meeting of Synod or Presbytery held between the making of the application by the Trustees and the June Board meeting, unendorsed applications will be voted on at the June meeting;

but exact duplicate applications, bearing the endorsement of the Synod or Presbytery at the fall meeting, must be sent to the Board before any appropriation will be confirmed.

Payment of Appropriations.

Payment of one-half of the appropriation for the year will ordinarily be made in December, and the second-half payment will be made as soon as possible after the close of the Church year.

Church collections sent to the Board designated for a given college will be paid to that college, but will be deducted from the appropriation voted by the Board, except where definite arrangements have been made by the Board with the college to receive such designated amounts.

Any solicitation of church collections by a college without a distinct prearrangement with the Board must necessarily decrease the Board's ability to pay in full the appropriations it has voted. The amount thus diverted from the Board's treasury will be deducted from the appropriations pro rata.

Conditions of Payment of Appropriations.

When the conditions governing an appropriation are not met before December 15th of the year in which the appropriation was voted by the Board, the appropriation shall lapse. The Treasurer is authorized to pay appropriations only on condition that a college shall have sent to the Board by Sept. 15th a satisfactory Information Report on the blank furnished by the Board, of the preceding college year; and shall satisfy the Board in the following particulars:

(1) That it requires all regular students to take systematic Bible study as a part of the curriculum required for graduation in accordance with the agreement between the College Board and the Annual College Conference held on May 16, 1906; 144 hours are the minimum for required Bible study in the college course, 36 hours are to be given each year;

(2) That it has on its staff only such officers and teachers as exert a positive Christian influence over the students;

(3) That its financial administration is conservative and safe;

(4) That it has used every reasonable effort to secure funds from its vicinage, within agreed presbyterial or synodical lines ;

(5) That it carries adequate insurance on its buildings and their valuable contents;

(6) That no mortgage is placed upon the property without previous consent in writing by the Board; and

(7) That such securities as the General Assembly requires are given to the Board for the appropriation or grant when paid.

The Board will co-operate most heartily with colleges

1. That are evidently needed, conditions of population and location of other educational institutions being considered.

2. That have local interest, opportunity for growth and promise of permanence;

3. That do educational work of high grade;

4. That seek to form Christian character, influencing students toward Bible study, saving faith, right living and consecration to service; and

5. That are prudently and conservatively financed, in estimating probable income, in preparing budgets of expenses, and in the investment of permanent funds. Colleges may never properly, under any conditions, use endowment or special funds, even temporarily, for current expenses or deficit. Such a course is regarded as a misuse of trust funds.

3. Co-operation with Colleges and Givers to Secure Co-operation Between Them.

The Board will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to make known to givers the nature and needs of Presbyterian educational institutions.

It will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to secure gifts:

(1) The Assembly expects every church to make an offering for the College Board.

Colleges approved and recommended for aid on current expenses, may solicit and receive the College Board offerings of the churches in their home regions only when a distinct arrangement to that effect has been made with the college by the Board.

As the Board must depend entirely on church offerings for funds to pay appropriations voted for the current expenses of colleges, it is expected that stronger colleges—while seeking individual gifts and, on occasion, additional special offerings from the churches—will not attempt to secure the regular College Board offerings for themselves.

(2) The Board will expect much from individual givers.

The Board requests that colleges, planning to solicit funds outside of their home fields, will first consult with the Board, that the interests of all co-operating parties may be conserved; otherwise it will be understood that such colleges will not ask or expect any special co-operation from the Board.

(3) The Board will seek for its own Treasury:

(a) Gifts and legacies for use in accordance with the expressed wishes of donors, or, if such wishes are not expressed, for use in the discretion of the Board;

(b) The Board will seek for a Retiring Fund of $500,000 as a minimum, the income of which shall be paid for retiring allowances for teachers who have served our colleges with great ability and loyalty for many years, at low salaries, and who have come to an age when they can no longer render active service.

(4) The Board will seek for colleges:

(a) Gifts and legacies for permanent endowment.

(b) Such gifts from individuals for current expenses as will help the college, beyond the appropriation the Board makes, to meet its annual deficit while the college is securing endowment.

(c) The Board will always seek first, in co-operation with a college, to develop the interest and gifts of its home field, both for endowment, for temporary aid in Scholarships, Chairs and Sustentation, and in emergencies, and afterward in other fields, as may seem wise and practicable.

(5) The Board will expect from Colleges :

(a) Monthly reports of gifts received from churches, church societies, individuals, legacies, etc.

The Treasurer of the Board will send to all Presbyterian universities, colleges, academies and schools of which the Board may have knowledge, blanks on which all such gifts shall be reported.

(b) Gifts reported by approved colleges and academies, on the special blanks prepared for their use by the Board, will be treated as receipts of the Board. Treasurers of such institutions are Deputy Treasurers of the Board, authorized to handle and account for College Board gifts secured in co-operation with the Board and sent by the giver directly to the college. Church offerings so reported will appear on the books of the Board, and in its Annual Report, in the list of contributing churches; the amounts given by individual givers, in classified totals, in the alphabetical list of colleges.

The Board will report in its Annual Report to the Assembly, all gifts passing through its treasury and also all gifts received directly by the colleges when reported to the Board as above.

Academies.

1. The Board does not see its way clear to approve the establishing of any new academies in the northern section of the country, where the High School development is already marked.

2. The Board will consider applications regarding academies in the southern section as on a different basis, emphasizing, however, its feeling that such institutions will in most cases be temporary in their character.

3. The Board finds that changed educational conditions render impossible the effective maintenance of academies with the resources at the command of the Board. The Board adopts, therefore, the policy of withdrawing from academic work, except where academies are connected with Presbyterian colleges.

4. This statement has reference solely to academies independent of colleges, the Board continuing its hearty approval and its offers of assistance for academic departments of colleges.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE COLLEGE BOARD.

AS IT WAS ADOPTED BY THE ASSEMBLY.

The Thirtieth Annual Report of the College Board and the Minutes of the Board have been submitted to us.

The Committee finds that there are 63 institutions affiliated with the Presbyterian Church and receiving financial support directly or indirectly from the College Board or from various agencies of the Church represented by the College Board. Of the 63 institutions, 58 are colleges, 5 are academies. Thirty-five of the institutions are organically connected with the Church; ten institutions, by charter requirements, must have a majority of their Board of Trustees composed of members of the Presbyterian Church; and eighteen colleges, though not legally connected with the Church, are nevertheless under Presbyterian approval as to their work.

The enrollment is as follows: College students, 7,704; preparatory, 4,114; others, 10,400; total, 22,218. There are 1,538 professors and teachers in the institutions. The Bible is a required study in almost every one of them.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Secretary's Report presents an educational policy of great interest and importance to the Church. It is the hope of the Committee that the educational policy outlined in the Report of the College Board be very carefully considered by pastors and churches and that an earnest co-operation be given by Presbyteries and Synods in the carrying out of such policy. Your Committee appreciates the careful thought and tireless activities of the Secretaries in working out this educational policy, in addition to their other laborious work.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Treasurer's Report shows that the total receipts from normal sources for the year are larger this year than any other year of the Board's history. Last year the total receipts from all sources was $1,482,312; if from this total we deduct $132,317, receipts from legacies, most of which was from the J. S. Kennedy Estate, we have a net total of receipts for 1912 of $1,250,000. The net receipts for this Church year is $1,372,000, a substantial increase, which indicates an increasing interest and confidence in the Board and its work.

It is with satisfaction that the Committee notes that the Church collections, which aggregated $111,358, were for the most part sent to the Board's treasury. From the Board, through the Board, and from individuals directly, the colleges received last year a splendid total of $1,281,445.

The Committee is also satisfied that the administration expenses of $20,325, shows that the Board is economically managed and that this is a small outlay considering that something like one million dollars was secured by the Board directly and through coöperation; this being but 2 per cent. spent for administration of the total secured.

The Committee wishes to express its appreciation of the services of Mr. Henry L. Smith, Treasurer of the Board, who without compensation serves as Treasurer.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGES.

The Committee has reviewed with pleasure and profit the recent publication by the College Board entitled "Presbyterian Colleges." Organized in 1883, this year makes the completion of the third decade of the work of the College Board, or thirty years of its existence, and the Board celebrates the occasion by issuing an illustrated brochure of exceeding interest and attractiveness, entitled "Presbyterian Colleges," which assuredly is the ultima thule of its kind. Of the 60 colleges now affiliated with the Board, only 17 were in existence as colleges in 1883. Eight were received from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and 32 were developed from the academies. The book is a perfect panoramic view of the colleges in the finest of half-tones. To eliminate all suspicion of partiality to any particular institution, one page only, opposite the picture, is given to a statistical résumé of the property and endowment conditions and operations of the institution.

Your Committee gives its unqualified appreciation, approbation and commendation to this publication, which has all the merits of conciseness and information of an exacting report and commends itself to all who are seeking accurate information about our colleges.

This great array of 60 institutions calls for and imperatively demands from us, as never before, an heroic exploitation on a systematic and self-sacrificing basis of Christian education, both for the Church and for citizenship.

Let all the Presbyteries at their fall meetings give over one evening to a service whose keynote shall be Christian education, more students for and better support of our Christian colleges.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD.

The Minutes of the Board have been carefully examined and special commendation is made of the concise, neat, and attractive way in which they have been kept and prepared.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the Minutes of the Board, which have been examined and found in order, be approved.

2. That the educational policy of the Church, as set forth by the Board in its Report, be approved, and that, as requested by the College presidents, the Board be encouraged to arrange such an educational campaign throughout the Church as will place the great subject of Christian Education adequately before the people.

3. That the Assembly call upon all the churches to observe Education Week as outlined in the Report of the Committee on Education.

4. That the policy of the College Board be approved and its work commended to the sympathetic coöperation of the Church and the Christian colleges.

5. That the action of the College Board in the selection of Dr. James E. Clarke as Associate Secretary be approved.

6. That the establishment of the Department of Publicity and Extension, by which a more accurate knowledge of the needs of the colleges shall be known, be approved.

7. That the Financial Report of the Board, duly audited by a public accountant, be approved.

8. That the publication and distribution of 15,000 copies of "Presbyterian Colleges" be commended and approved.

9. That all the churches send their College Board collections undesignated to the Board, as the Board is in a better position to know its own obligations and where the money is most needed to produce the best results.

10. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire at this time—John B. Laird, D.D., Philadelphia; Rev. Frederick E. Stockwell, Newburgh, N. Y.; Frederick W. Garvin, Esq., New York; Elisha H. Perkins, Baltimore, Md.; Hon. J. A. Beaver, LL.D., Bellefonte, Pa.; James S. Hubbard, Chicago, Ill.; John P. Munn, M.D., New York, be reelected; and that Edwin J. Gillies be elected to fill the place of E. O. Emerson, deceased; that Rev. Edwin A. McAlpin, Jr., be elected to fill the place of Rev. J. E. Clarke, resigned; that S. Edward Young, D.D., be elected to fill the place of Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., resigned, and that A. A. Hyde be elected to fill the place of H. B. McCormick, resigned.

In response to memorial 298, received from the Synod of Pennsylvania and referred to this Committee, and which is as follows:

"WHEREAS, Lafayette College is connected by charter with the Synod of Pennsylvania, and educates all students for the ministry and home and foreign mission fields free of tuition;

"AND WHEREAS, The salaries of the professors of the college are paid out of the tuition of the students, thus making the free tuition scholarships to students for the ministry and mission fields practically gifts upon the part of the professors to the Presbyterian Church;

"AND WHEREAS, A movement has been inaugurated by the Alumni Association of the college under the leadership of Mr. Robert F. Whitmer, a loyal Presbyterian and Lafayette Alumnus, of Philadelphia, to raise an endowment fund of $1,000,000 to increase the salaries of the professors of Lafayette College and later to provide pensions for the retired professors;

"AND WHEREAS, The College Board of our Church has heartily endorsed this movement, is coöperating with it, and has recommended it to the Church;

"Be it Resolved:

"1. That the Synod of Pennsylvania, in session at Butler, Pa., October 23, 1912, heartily endorses the movement to raise said endowment fund for Lafayette College.

"2. That the Synod cordially recommends it to the Sessions of its Churches for public presentation, and commendation to their individual members.

"3. That the Synod appoint a Committee of three—two ministers and one elder—who shall, without expense to the Synod, present a request from the Synod to the General Assembly at Atlanta, Georgia, next May, asking the Assembly's endorsement of said movement and its coöperation in raising such an endowment fund for Lafayette College."

It was Resolved: That the movement for the raising of $1,000,000 for the increase of the endowment and equipment of Lafayette College be commended and that this old and vigorous college be recommended to the Church and the people for aid in its effort to increase its efficiency and enlarge its influence.

It is understood that any other of our colleges is equally entitled to such a recommendation if necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. BULL, Chairman.

ROBERT H. MONTGOMERY, Secretary.

A MAN who grasps a principle and then holds to it and fights for it, regardless of all cost and consequence, renders a service to the world quite apart from the value of the principle which he upholds. In the midst of a mob of time-servers such a man renews our faith in human nature and rallies us to the eternal verities.

OFFICIAL PAPER:

THE AMETHYST. Published Monthly.

IN PRESENTING its thirty-second annual report to the General Assembly, the Permanent Committee on Temperance records its deep gratitude to Almighty God for His blessing bestowed upon the cause of temperance during the past year. We also bear record of the increased interest manifested by the Church in the duty and privilege of helping forward this sacred movement, the deepening and widening conviction that the temperance reform is not simply the optional business of individuals, but the necessary and divinely-ordained duty of the Church.

FINANCES.

The receipts of the year have been $37,398.61, which, added to the balance of $4,871.98 from last year, makes the total assets of the year $42,270.59. The disbursements have been $35,847.52, which, added to two legacies aggregating $750.00, only the income of which is to be used, leaves a net balance of $5,673.07.

If this suggests that there has been no financial anxiety during the year, it is far from the fact. As late as March 26th there was not means in hand to meet our financial obligations, which shows that there was no opportunity of planning for the wise expenditure of the balance here indicated. About $16,000 was received in the last few days of the year. Every reasonable means at our command has been employed to induce the churches to send their offerings quarterly or at least before the close of the year, but the result of this effort is indicated by the foregoing facts. Earlier distribution of their funds on the part of the churches, and greater promptness in forwarding the same on the part of the treasurers would save money paid for interest, lessen anxiety and promote efficiency.

ORATORICAL PRIZES.

One of the most encouraging features of the past year has been the increased number of colleges and theological seminaries which have held temperance oratorical contests. The Committee offers $25.00 in gold to each of such institutions in connection with our Church on the following conditions:

1. That there shall be a public oratorical contest held with the approval of the faculty and under its direction.
  2. That all of the orations shall be on some phase of the temperance reform.
  3. That there shall be at least three and preferably not fewer than five contestants.
  4. That copies of the winning orations shall be sent to the Assembly's Committee.
  5. That if it is desired to make the contest an annual affair, appropriate record shall be made of the same in the annual catalogue.
- These prizes are not offered to schools of lower grade than colleges nor do we offer them to individual churches, temperance organizations, or institutions not connected with the Presbyterian Church.

About thirty schools have applied for prizes during the past year and most of them have secured the money already and others will do so before the close of the scholastic year.

TEMPERANCE LIBRARIES.

The need of reliable, authoritative reference works on the subject of temperance in the libraries of our educational institutions is urgent. Many of our students have access only to a limited number of such works, and in many cases these are found to be not only out of date, but misleading and dangerous. To meet the demand, your Committee, after conference with leading temperance workers, has selected a reference library which may be had for $5.00 and a larger one for $10.00. The demand for these books has been gratifying and is increasing. It is proposed to select books in the same way for general reading on this subject, which can be recommended for use in our Sunday-school libraries.

PLEDGE SIGNING.

Emphasis has been largely centered upon legislation for twenty years or more, but temperance people are beginning to realize more fully that we cannot successfully legislate unless we intelligently and persistently educate. People are not likely to insist upon either the enactment or enforcement of laws which they do not think are both wise and necessary. But let them be fully convinced of the uselessness and the harmfulness of alcoholic beverages to the individual, society, and business, and they will speedily find means to remedy the drink evil.

Each generation must be taught the lessons learned by those who have gone before, and some of these lessons must ever be learned in the same way, but it is not necessary to take poison to learn that it is dangerous, and this is true when the poison is in the form of alcohol as when in any other form. Entire abstinence is the only safeguard against this evil. The pledge is safe, scriptural, dignified and simple. Of course it must be kept like any other pledge to be effective.

Your Committee has continued to distribute large numbers of pledge cards for the individual and also pledge rolls for Sunday-schools and other organizations as well as families. An attractive badge in the form of a button is provided for those who care for them after signing the pledge.

OUR WORKERS.

Miss Marie C. Brehm, who has been with us a number of years, continues to render large and valuable service. Her one failing seems to be the lack of ubiquity. She has charge of the temperance program of the World's Sunday-school Convention, to be held in Zurich, Switzerland, in July, and by special invitation makes the principal address on this subject. Rev. Percy Y. Schelly and Rev. Dr. G. W. Wadsworth, the former located in Philadelphia, and the latter in Denver, have each had a busy and profitable year, addressing many kinds of organizations and gatherings, explaining the work and methods of the Committee and doing many other things to further the reform.

September first, Mr. A. D. Zook, a graduate of Wooster University, took charge of the work among the foreign-speaking people. He is employed jointly by your Committee and the Women's Home Missionary Society of Pittsburgh, each paying half of his salary. Mr. Zook visits these people in their homes, addresses them in the open air, or in churches, schoolhouses or other available buildings. By the use of the stereopticon temperance slides he is able both to attract and instruct, so that he reaches large numbers with facts which it would be difficult to get before them in any other way. The extension of this work into cities and other centers is desirable. These strangers within our gates afford an opportunity to the Church which means duty.

During most of the year your Committee has furnished a Spanish-speaking helper to accompany Rev. John Mordy, who is under commission of the Sabbath-school Board of our Church for work in New Mexico. Mr. Mordy is one of God's noblemen and is doing pioneer work in a growing state. Many of the people are seldom or never reached by ordinary gospel influence, because they speak Spanish and are remote from places where such services are held. By going to them with both the Bible and temperance, the latter of which is presented not only in public addresses, but in private interviews and by means of literature, he is accomplishing a most blessed work, and your Committee feels that $25.00 a month spent in this way is well invested.

Rev. J. J. Wilson, a colored evangelist, is employed jointly by your Committee and the Board of Freedmen. He labors among his own race, distributing literature, making public addresses, securing pledge signers and doing personal work among a people too long neglected in this respect.

Grateful mention deserves to be made of the gratuitous service which Rev. Duncan C. Milner, D. D., of Chicago, continues to render. His heart is deeply in this cause and, as opportunity affords, he gives himself to it intelligently and unselfishly. Various members of your Committee have also rendered service.

The General Secretary has not only overseen but actually performed much work in the office and has also done a large amount of field work.

Beginning January first, Mr. Dwight E. Worrell, a son of the manse, began the work of personally interviewing pastors and sessions of churches which have not hitherto been in close touch with your Committee. The result has been gratifying, not only in securing additional contributions, but in getting the publications of the Committee circulated through these congregations. The old truth, "That My people perish for lack of knowledge," is manifest in many places. When once the facts are fairly in the minds of the people, a long step will have been taken toward the solution of this problem. Mr. Worrell is not only successful in his work, but is deeply interested in the cause of temperance.

We rejoice that the weight of accumulating years has not deprived our Corresponding Secretary, who is also our Treasurer, of the joy of serving his Master in a cause which he has so long and unselfishly loved. May his bow long abide in strength!

Miss Elizabeth B. Weaver and Miss Anna M. Wycoff have labored with us in this gospel, and their work in the office well deserves recognition.

The Presbyterial and Synodical Chairmen who have given time and thought are also entitled to the gratitude of the Church.

WHERE WE WORK.

There seems to be an impression in some places that the Assembly's Temperance Committee is largely local in its activities. Of course, it has to be located somewhere, but the impression that the community where it is located receives an undue proportion of its attention will be removed when it is known that during the past year the Committee has operated in the following thirty-nine States: Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Arkansas, Tennessee.

In some of these states only a limited amount of work has been done, while in others, such as West Virginia and Colorado, where campaigns were waged, the service has been large. Next to these two states, more work was perhaps done in California than in any other. This is due to the fact that the Synod of California especially asked for the service of a representative. Dr. Wadsworth, having lived in California, was well and favorably known and his service was naturally in large demand. Miss Brehm also spent several weeks in California.

We try to distribute the service throughout the whole Church as equitably as circumstances will permit and conditions require.

THE AMETHYST.

The Amethyst, started four and a half years ago, has a circulation of 115,000, or a gain of 20,000 over last year. We are not aware that the single edition of any other temperance paper has an equal circulation, which would be much larger than this but our people do not seem to understand that the postal laws prohibit sending it except to those who have actually ordered it and paid for it, or who definitely promise to pay for it. To make this plain we send a letter of instruction with the receipts for the remittances, but even this does not seem to impress sufficiently the facts here stated.

OTHER WORK.

Other lines of work than those already mentioned are the preparation of Temperance Day Programs, supplying tracts in twelve languages, the loan of stereopticon slides to Presbyterian organizations, work among the Indians, petitioning in favor of desirable laws, protesting against undesirable laws, making temperance surveys of cities, communities and states, and furnishing both general and specific information on all phases of the reform.

This last item involves much reading, research, and the writing of hundreds of letters, but it is worth many times what it costs for our people to have a place at which they can secure reliable information.

OUR FIRST LEGACIES.

During the year two legacies have been received. One from the estate of Daniel Worthley, of Pontiac, Illinois, and the other from the late Jacob H. Strathmann, of El Paso, Illinois. These have been invested and only the income will be used.

The great need and the sacredness of the cause ought to appeal strongly to all patriotic and Christian men and women. Surely the number of hearts and homes which have been saddened and darkened by this evil should touch the sympathy and enlist the support of all who love their kind.

A WIDER FIELD.

Sometimes it is said that one denomination cannot win this fight and that, therefore, the work should be left entirely to outside organizations which are not so restricted.

One denomination cannot evangelize the entire heathen world, nor even adequately do all that needs to be done in the home field, but each can do its part and the existence in each denomination of Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and the almost entire absence of belief that such work should be abandoned or merged into an independent agency is a significant testimony to its merit.

There should be and there is, co-operation, harmonious and helpful, as will be seen in the consideration of subjects to follow in this report. The Presbyterian Church has never been narrow in her work in this or any other movement. She leads every church in the world in the scope and variety of her temperance activity, but her service is by no means confined to her own denomination.

For economy and efficiency in the field of educational temperance your Committee invites comparison with any other agency. For instance, any Presbyterian church which contributes to the support of this work is entitled, without extra charge or regard to the amount contributed to the following: (1) All of the literature needed in the congregation; (2) temperance day programs; (3) Art Pledge Cards and Pledge Rolls; (4) the loan of stereopticon slides; (5) the service of a speaker; (6) subscription to The Amethyst to the full amount of its contribution; (7) full credit for the entire amount given, as if none of the former things had been received. We do not believe that any other organization can offer more, if as much.

LEGISLATION.

The most important legislation during the past year was the passage of the Webb Bill, intended to prohibit the shipment of liquor into prohibition territory for illegal purposes. The need of such a measure has long been felt. Whether it will stand the test of constitutionality or whether it will accomplish the desired end are matters concerning which there is a difference of opinion. If it should be declared unconstitutional, which we do not believe, the court would simply say, in effect, to temperance people, "You have not yet found the legal way," but certainly a community which wishes to prohibit the liquor traffic should not have its will thwarted by contrary-minded people in other states. Let us hope that an effective method has been found and that the law will stand. If such is the case and States will enact laws prohibiting interstate shipments, they will have come within one step of the limit of legislation. The only further position that could be taken would be to prohibit its use or possession by the individual. No state has ever seriously considered that except in its penal or eleemosynary institutions. The following is the text of the Webb Bill:

THE KENYON-WEBB BILL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That the shipment or transportation in any manner or by any means whatsoever of any spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented, or other intoxicating liquor of any kind, including beer, ale, or wine, from one state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, into any other state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, which said spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquor is intended to be received, possessed, sold, or in any manner used, either in the original package or otherwise, in violation of any law of such state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, enacted in the exercise of the police powers of such state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, is hereby prohibited.

Your Committee co-operated with other temperance forces in securing this law and our Church is justly entitled to credit.

WEST VIRGINIA.

At the general election, November 5th, 1912, West Virginia voted in favor of constitutional prohibition by a majority of 92,342. Only three counties in the state gave a majority against the amendment. This is probably the largest majority ever given by any state in the Union against the liquor traffic. Very stringent laws have been enacted for the enforcement of the amendment. That the sentiment in the state is strong against the drink evil is indicated by the fact that thirty-seven of the fifty-five counties are now without saloons. The amendment, however, does not go into effect until July 1st, 1914.

The Assembly's Committee expended several hundred dollars in the campaign, three of its Secretaries, Rev. Percy Y. Schelly, Miss Marie C. Brehm and the General Secretary, made numerous addresses, and Mr. William Johnson, then in the employ of the Committee, made valuable and effective surveys. Judge J. C. McWhorter, a Presbyterian layman, was chairman of the united temperance forces of the state, and Rev. G. I. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Sistersville, W. Va., was secretary and chairman of the Speakers' Bureau. Judge McWhorter says, "The Presbyterian Temperance Committee was a powerful factor that merits special mention." Mr. Wilson says, "We found the Assembly's Committee ready to help in every way in their power and without their help the Speakers' Bureau would have been handicapped. Their timely help enabled this department of the campaign to be carried forward unhindered, and therefore the Committee played a very prominent part in the great victory that has come to the forces of right."

COLORADO.

An unsuccessful effort was made to secure state-wide prohibition in Colorado, but the temperance forces were not sufficiently organized and some divisions of the army failed to enter heartily into the campaign. Your Committee, however, offered to pay the traveling expenses up to a stated amount, of fifty Presbyterian ministers within the Synod if they could give some time to making addresses in behalf of temperance. A considerable number responded nobly, and we wish to bear testimony to the economy and efficiency of this method of operation. Many of the men accepted nothing and none of them accepted more than actual outlay, which was very modest.

Though the effort failed, we believe it was worth all it cost as a campaign of education. Many states have spent much more in an unsuccessful effort to secure legislation which would have been less effective had it been realized.

ARKANSAS.

September 9th, 1912, Arkansas voted on state-wide prohibition. There were 69,390 votes cast for prohibition and 85,358 against it, giving an adverse majority of 15,968. Your Committee offered to help in Arkansas in the same way that it did in Colorado and West Virginia. But Arkansas has since passed a law requiring a majority of white citizens, men and women, to sign in favor of a saloon before a license can be granted in a given district. This will place much of the territory under prohibition.

OHIO.

A backward step was taken in Ohio by the adoption of an amendment to its constitution in September, 1912, licensing the liquor traffic.

Though the vote on the amendment was small, being only about 462,000 out of a total possible vote of 1,250,000, the majority in favor of the license was more than 84,000. This does not seem to indicate that the smaller voting unit always leads to the larger. Logically it should do so, but historically it has often failed, as in this case.

SOLDIERS' HOMES.

Congress again failed to make any appropriation for Soldiers' Homes where intoxicating liquors are sold. The following is the law:

"Provided that no part of the foregoing appropriation shall be expended for any purpose at any branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteers that maintains or permits to be maintained on its premises a bar, canteen, or other place where beer, wine, or other intoxicating liquors are sold."

AMONG THE INDIANS.

Congress again made provision for the enforcement of prohibition among Indians and on Indian reservations. This applies to the native Alaskans as well as to Indians in other parts of the United States

LIQUOR EXCLUDED FROM THE MAILS.

It was feared by some that the parcel post would enable liquor dealers to introduce their wares into prohibition territory, but the Postoffice Department has ruled that liquor cannot so be carried. The following is the law:

"That all spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors of any kind are hereby declared to be non-mailable and shall not be deposited in or carried through the mails. Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited, for mailing or delivery, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by mail, according to the direction thereon, of or at any place at which it is directed to be delivered by the person to whom it is addressed, anything declared by this section to be non-mailable, * * * shall be fined, etc., or imprisoned, etc., or both."

FEDERAL COUNCIL.

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, at its meeting in Chicago in December, 1912, arranged for the establishment of a Temperance Commission which should represent the thirty-three denominations included in the Council in all matters pertaining to temperance, the Commission to be constituted as follows:

The temperance agency of each denomination, which has such an agency, is to select four representatives, the Executive Committee of the Federal Council is to select fifteen persons to represent those denominations which do not have agencies of their own, and the President of the Council is to appoint the chairman of the Commission. Your Committee has selected Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D. D.; Rev. Thomas Watters, D. D.; Prof. Charles Scanlon and Mr. Robert Gibson to represent the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

THE INTER-CHURCH TEMPERANCE FEDERATION.

The Inter-Church Temperance Federation, organized in January, 1907, now embraces nine denominations. It works in perfect harmony with the Federal Council, and when the Commission of said Council is fully organized and active, the Church Temperance Federation may dissolve or merge with the larger body. Meanwhile it performs the important function of representing the united sentiment of the most active church temperance agencies, and united with other forces in advocating the Webb Bill.

LIQUOR AND LABOR.

Labor has no greater foe than the liquor traffic, which employs less labor, pays less wages and consumes less material than anything with which it may be equitably compared. For instance, $1,000,000 in the iron and steel industry will give employment to 284 men, the same amount in the manufacture of vehicles for land transportation 858, but if invested in liquor only 77 men. Of the total value of the product in the case of the manufacturer of vehicles, labor gets 34.35 per cent., while in the case of liquor it gets only 7.3 per cent.

We hear it said by the liquor advocates that they give employment to "hundreds of thousands of men." As a matter of fact the number employed in the manufacture of distilled, malt or vinous liquors in 1910 was only 62,920, and the entire wages paid amounted to only $45,252,000.

The liquor traffic lessens the demand for the great necessities of life, increases the cost and difficulty of production, and reduces the purchasing power of the people, hence, must always be the enemy of labor, capital and business.

Your Committee seeks to keep in touch with labor organizations and movements that temperance may receive due consideration and that we may profit by having their point of view.

STATES UNDER PROHIBITION.

*Goes into effect July 1, 1914.

Many other states have large no-license areas. Including the prohibition states approximately one-half the population of the United States is nominally free from the legalized liquor traffic. But, as the following table shows, the national drink bill is enormous and growing, even though there was a slight decrease in the per capita consumption last year.

THE COST AND CONSUMPTION.

| Drink Consumption.    | Gallons.      | Per Gallon. | Drink Bill.     |
|-----------------------|---------------|-------------|-----------------|
| Domestic Spirits..... | *149,571,166  | $6.25      | $934,816,037   |
| Imported Spirits..... | 3,544,921     | 8.00        | 28,359,368      |
| Domestic Beer.....    | 1,925,361,507 | 0.64½       | 1,241,858,172   |
| Imported Beer.....    | 7,169,677     | 1.00        | 7,169,677       |
| Domestic Wines.....   | 50,619,880    | 2.00        | 101,239,760     |
| Imported Wines.....   | 5,804,831     | 4.00        | 223,219,324     |
| Total.....            | 2,142,071,982 |             | $2,336,662,338 |

*This includes 12,619,156 gallons increase by rectification. Authority for this figure is found on page 99 of the 1912 report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The total per capita consumption was 21.98 gallons, a decrease of .81 gallons from the high record of 1911.

The above table shows that the liquor traffic cost the people of the United States $2,336,662,338.00. The meager return from the traffic to the National Government in internal revenue was only $219,650,258.00, or less than one dollar for every ten dollars which it costs. The grand total, regular and permanent annual appropriation for the United States Government in 1912-13 was $1,019,412,710.91. That is, it cost considerably more than twice as much to run the saloons of the country as it does the National Government. When we run our automobiles instead of our politics with alcohol the conditions may be reversed.

CONCLUSION.

In the face of these facts and this foe of the home, the church and the school and the state, what is the duty of the Presbyterian Church? May it please this Assembly to answer with such a high, clear, firm deliverance that the hosts of righteousness in all ranks will leap forward by common impulse, carrying the cross of Christ and the banner of temperance side by side with dauntless valor and quenchless faith.

The term of the following members of your Committee expires with this Assembly:

Rev. T. B. Anderson, D. D.; Rev. William McEwan, D. D.; Rev. J. H. Snowden, D. D.; S. H. Thompson, Esq.; Graham C. Wells; Robert Gibson.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES SCANLON,
General Secretary.

REPORT

OF THE

Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

The Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply respectfully submits the following, which is its First Annual Report.

The initial year of any work is of necessity devoted largely to preparatory processes. The first conference of members of the Committee was at Winona Lake, in August, 1912, called there to meet the Executive Commission, upon which the Assembly had placed the responsibility for determining the method of financing the work of the Committee. The Executive Commission took the only position it could reasonably take, namely, that this work belongs to the administrative rather than to the benevolence department of Church life, and therefore that its support, like all administrative work, should be from the Assembly's Fund raised by Presbyterian assessment. Recommendation of an additional quarter of a cent to the Presbyterian assessment, to meet the expenses of this work until the Assembly of 1913, was sent down to the Presbyteries. The Committee, feeling sure that the Assembly would approve the judgment of the Executive Commission, and that so the financial support of its work would be assured, felt free to levy upon the Church at large for one of her strongest men to serve in the responsible position of Corresponding Secretary. Obviously, upon such official efficiency the future of this work must largely depend.

The Committee was organized by electing Rev. George N. Luccock, D.D., as Chairman, and Rev. Paul B. Jenkins, D.D., as Secretary. Two lines of work were immediately undertaken: first, a survey of the Church's various attempts to deal with the problem of Vacancy and Supply; and, secondly, a search for the Corresponding Secretary.

Very fortunately, Rev. Walter H. Houston, who in similar work in the Synod of Ohio had been signally successful, and who had studied this whole question as few other men had studied it, was induced to accept the call to this work. His election was duly confirmed by the Executive Commission. His relations to the Synod of Ohio were such that for the first months of service he divided time with the work there, the Ohio Synod assuming a generous share of his support. Inasmuch as the primary work of gathering facts by correspondence could just as well be done from an office in Columbus as from an office in Chicago, and for this year could be done more economically from the Columbus office, removal to Chicago was postponed.

The survey of the Church's efforts to deal with the problem of Vacancy and Supply brought out some very significant facts. It is very suggestive that no matter how often the question was raised and left unanswered or partially answered, or plans allowed to lapse, it would not stay out of the Assembly. The need is so deep in the convictions of the Church as to be persistently forcing itself upon the Assembly. No less significant are the obvious explanations of the final unsatisfactoriness of former attempts to deal with the problem. Inadequate financial support was the principal one; failure to create a central bureau charged with this single responsibility was a close second, and equally in the running was the failure to realize that in the very nature of the case a period of years is indispensable to an opportunity to prove any plan workable. The present plan, inaugurated by the Assembly of 1912, has the merit of avoiding all of these demonstrated weaknesses.

Passing by the actions on Vacancy and Supply of the General Assemblies of 1873, 1881, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1892, 1905 and 1907, all of which resulted in failure as already intimated, it is noted that the Assembly of 1910 referred the whole subject to the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work. Upon the report of that Committee, the General Assembly of 1911 sent down to the Presbyteries, Constitutional Rule No. 4, which was adopted by the Presbyteries and the General Assembly in 1912, and reads:

"The General Assembly shall have power to appoint a Permanent Committee or other agency to supervise the supply of vacant pulpits and the service of unemployed ministers. The number of members, the officers, and their duties, shall be determined by the Assembly. The powers of the agency shall be as follows: To conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust, in cooperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, the requirements of vacancy and supply by methods adequate to given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church Sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly."

The Assembly of 1912 took the following action:

1. The General Assembly hereby appoints, under the provisions of Constitutional Rule No. 4, a Permanent Committee, consisting of six ministers and six ruling elders, to be divided into three classes, each composed of two ministers and two ruling elders. One of these classes shall be elected annually, and the full term of service shall be three years; provided, however, that at the first election, one class shall be elected for one year, a second class for two years, and a third class for three years, and thereafter each following Assembly shall elect two ministers and two elders to fill the vacancies made by those whose terms of office then expire.

2. Nominations for membership in this Committee for the present year shall be made by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and after the present year shall be referred to the Standing Committee of the General Assembly on Christian Life and Work. No more than three members shall be from any one Synod.

3. The officers of the Permanent Committee shall be a Chairman, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and such others as may be necessary, and shall be elected annually. The Corresponding Secretary shall be chosen outside the membership of the Committee, and shall be the only salaried officer. His appointment must have the confirmation of the Executive Commission.

4. The powers and duties of the Permanent Committee, as stated in Constitutional Rule No. 4, are as follows:

"To conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust, in cooperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, the requirements of Vacancy and Supply by means adequate to the given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church Sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly" (Minutes, General Assembly, 1912, p. 129).

5. The office of the Permanent Committee shall be located at Chicago, Ill.

6. The duties of the Corresponding Secretary shall be as follows: Under the direction of the Permanent Committee, he shall act as a constant and helpful medium of communication with different parts of the Church, through the respective Presbyterial and Synodical Committees on Vacancy and Supply. He shall stimulate to organized and concerted action, so that at the earliest moment the plan in its essential features, though with varying detail, may be in operation in every Presbytery. His business shall be wholly to give information, to be a depository and distributor of facts, both as to unemployed ministers and vacant churches, to whom both ministers and churches may apply, and by whom they may be put at once in correspondence with Presbyterian or Synodical Committees, or with other parties or bodies interested.

7. The Permanent Committee shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the transaction of its business, and shall report the same to the General Assembly.

8. The expenses of organizing the work of the Permanent Committee shall be met by the General Assembly, and shall not exceed $1,000. The expenses of management by the Permanent Committee, when the work has been organized, shall be determined by the Executive Commission, both as to the amount and as to the method of securing moneys.

9. Each Presbytery, it is recommended, should appoint a Committee, under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chapter XXI, Sections 2, 3 and 4, to have supervision of all vacant churches within its bounds, except as such supervision may be arranged for otherwise by the Presbytery in special cases. The term of service of this Committee should be not less than three years.

10. It shall be the duty of the Committee of Presbytery to prepare and keep a list of the vacant churches within its bounds, and of such of its unemployed ministers as are competent for service, and not relieved by Presbyterian action from the regular work of the ministry; and also to arrange for the supply of the vacant churches from its list of available ministers, and from such other sources as may be suggested by correspondence with the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply. All details of adjustment shall be left to each Presbytery, to be determined by its own conditions and needs.

The following were elected by the Assembly as the members of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply:

For the term of three years: Ministers—George N. Luccock, D.D., John E. Bushnell, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Henry P. Crowell, E. A. K. Hackett.

For the term of two years: Ministers—John Timothy Stone, D.D., William L. McEwan, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert S. Sinclair, Benjamin F. Edwards.

For the term of one year: Ministers—S. S. Palmer, D.D., Paul B. Jenkins, D.D.; Elders—A. A. Loetscher, William R. Farrand.

The first meeting of the Committee was called for Winona Lake, Indiana, Friday, August 23, 1912, in conjunction with the meeting of the Assembly's Executive Commission at the same place and on the same date. The acts and conclusions of the Commission are given in its own Report.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

The Committee on Christian Life and Work reported for several years on this subject, and the Tables on Ministerial Employment and Vacant Churches prepared annually in the office of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly are herewith included this year by willing consent, in the Report of this Permanent Committee.

The situation as to ministers and churches as shown by the tables did not change materially for the better during the ecclesiastical year 1912, as compared with the year 1911. For instance, the number of pastors in 1911 was 4,063, and in 1912, 4,138; the stated supplies in 1911 were 1,582, and in 1912, 1,562; and the ministers without charge in 1911 were 1,522, and in 1912, 1,507. The vacant churches in 1911 were 2,052, and in 1912, 2,017.

Attention is again drawn to the table showing the size of the congregations, 4,086 out of 9,940 having each 50 members or less. Further, 5,641 congregations out of 9,940 contribute towards congregational expenses $900 per annum or less. The great majority of these small churches are the response made by faithful Christians to the religious needs of village or rural communities. They need the spiritual care of pastors and the financial support of the Church at large. The Board of Home Missions should be enabled to put hundreds of new men in the field, and should have double the resources it now possesses. Synodical and Presbyterian Home Missions should also be more generously supported.

The first task given the Committee by the Assembly's Plan was to conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries. The result of a very extensive and systematic correspondence, together with other office matters, is submitted in the following report by the Secretary, concluding with some definite opinions in which he voices not merely his own, but likewise the convictions of the entire Committee.

SECRETARY HOUSTON'S REPORT.

The definite organization of the work of the Committee was undertaken December 1 by the new Secretary, and has been strenuously carried on from his office located in Columbus, Ohio.

As fundamental to future efficiency, it was determined at the very beginning to make a careful survey of the entire Church in order to ascertain exact conditions. Communications were therefore directed to the Stated Clerks of the various Presbyteries in the effort to secure detailed information in regard to the work in each Presbytery. It is gratifying to note the prompt response received from a large majority of the Stated Clerks, and as a result of this generous coöperation the Committee was at once put in possession of a vast fund of information covering general conditions as they exist throughout the entire Church.

From each Presbytery was secured a list of the various Presbyterial officers and committeemen who are in any way related to the problem of Vacancy and Supply, together with an outline of such plan as the Presbytery might have for dealing with the vacancy problem. The reports received indicate that a very small percentage of the Presbyteries have any definite plan for effectively handling the problem of the vacant church, and this the Committee regards as a most serious defect in Presbyterial administration, and one that should be speedily remedied. It is the purpose of the Committee at an early date to submit to the various Presbyteries some carefully prepared suggestions, in the hope that these may materially aid the Presbytery in putting into practical operation the provisions of the Form of Government relating to the care of vacant churches.

We furthermore secured from each Presbytery a list of the vacant fields, the length of the vacancy, the amount of pastoral support furnished, as well as other items of information related thereto. A careful study of these reports revealed the fact that the vacancy problem is not confined to any particular section of the country, but in general the situation is about uniform throughout the Church. More than 90 per cent. of the Presbyteries reported vacant churches within their bounds. In summing up the conditions throughout the Church, it is clearly evident that to properly care for the fields able to support men the present average need is about three additional pastors to a Presbytery, or upwards of 900 additional men for the entire Church. This does not take into account a very large number of small and somewhat scattered churches for which at the present time scant provision is made. It is conservative to state that if these could be grouped, so that in some measure at least each might be under the care of a pastor, we would require not less than 100 additional men. So that were we as a Church to undertake to properly care for all of our fields we would require about 1,000 pastors in addition to those already serving in that capacity.

The question of an adequate ministry therefore compelled attention, and has been a subject of careful investigation. According to the reports of 1912, we have on the rolls of our Church a total of 9,153 ministers, but only about two-thirds of these are actually engaged in regular pastoral service. The 3,000 men not in pastorates include a considerable number who pursue educational work; all of those serving the Church in connection with her various Boards and agencies; those engaged in the general work of the Church in Synods and Presbyteries, as well as a distinguished body of men honorably retired, or who have passed the time when age or health no longer permit the pursuit of regular lines of ministerial service. The Committee in its survey has earnestly endeavored to discover the exact number of men who are actually available for regular service. The size of the task prevents our giving exact figures at this time, but the analysis of reports has gone far enough to convince us that a very small percentage of the 3,000 men here referred to are actually available for regular pastoral service.

During the early stages of our work we have been greatly impressed by the interest manifested throughout the Church. If anyone doubts the widespread feeling that something of definite quality should be done to aid in remedying the present situation in our Church as regards Vacancy and Supply, he needs only to consider the volume of the incoming mail of the Secretary starting from the very day he assumed the duties of the office. During these months he has received letters in number ranging from 500 to nearly 1,000 monthly, these relating to every phase of the vacancy subject and coming from every section of the country. On the average, more than fifty different ministers each month have made application to this Committee for information as to vacancies and needed assistance in changing fields. A few who on account of illness or for other cause had been temporarily out of work have desired to re-enter service, but the very large majority were men who for good and sufficient reasons felt a change of pastorate to be advisable. These represent every class of men throughout our Church, and they bear a forcible testimony to our lack of efficient methods for the transferring of ministers. It has been the deep regret of the Committee and of its Secretary that because of the stress of work fundamental in character, and yet which we have deemed absolutely necessary to any promise of future success, we have not been able to always give the careful attention and prompt response which many of these cases deserved. So far as possible, however, the men have been put in touch with Synodical and Presbyterian representatives where additional ministers were needed, and a considerable number were thus called to new fields of labor.

During this period we have found that vacant churches are equally desirous of securing reliable information as to available men. Communications have come to us from churches of nearly every description, located from New England to the Pacific coast. With all of these we have endeavored to coöperate as time would permit, and believe that much valuable service has been rendered many of these fields. Something as to the immensity of the task before us may be suggested by reference to a communication only recently received from a representative of the Synodical Home Mission organization in one of our older Synods, asking that we coöperate with them in the effort to secure seventy-nine additional pastors now required for Home Mission fields.

The proper dimensions of this Report will not permit a discussion of many other phases of our work, which would doubtless be equally interesting to the Church at large. These will be presented from time to time by articles furnished to our various Church papers.

In presenting this Report, the Committee desires to state that it is deeply impressed with the serious quality as well as the appalling dimensions of the task committed to it by the General Assembly in carrying out the provisions of the Overture adopted by the Presbyteries. The situation confronting our Church is the same which, to a greater or less degree, is to-day confronting each of the non-Episcopal Churches. We have conferred with the representatives of most of the other branches of the Church and find them all equally impressed by the growing condition as to vacancy which they are forced to confront.

Is the Presbyterian Church equal to the task of finding some solution for this problem which is now almost universally admitted to be the most serious problem of administration confronting all of the non-Episcopal Churches? We have carefully studied the history of our Church covering a period of more than forty years, during which time many Committees appointed by the General Assembly carefully considered this question, but without practical results along the line desired. After these months of careful investigation the Committee is of the opinion that with proper coöperation on the part of the Presbyteries a plan can be worked out whereby the present distasteful elements can be eliminated from the situation, and the present appalling loss on account of long-extended vacancy reduced to the minimum.

To achieve such results will, however, not only require the coöperation of the Presbyteries and the intense efforts of the Committee, but an adequate period of time. If anyone expects that an effective solution for the vacancy problem is to be worked out by this Committee in a year or two, then that person is doomed to disappointment. In the candid judgment of the Committee, this is not possible. With the beginning already made, we believe that it is practical to gradually formulate and extend a definite plan of operation into every Presbytery in the Church, so that eventually, through the office of this Committee as a centre, a definite system of coöperation shall be established covering the entire Church. To this somewhat appalling task, the Committee, with the approval and support of the General Assembly, is willing to dedicate its best energies.

WALTER H. HOUSTON, Corresponding Secretary.

The Committee called the Corresponding Secretary from a very large and important work, and were able to overcome his personal reluctance to give up that work, and the adverse judgment of the Ohio Synodical Committee, only because Mr. Houston felt the urgency of this broader work for the whole Church. The efficiency of his work in the Synod of Ohio was in no small part due to the fact that his tenure of office was on the same basis as that of the pastor, that is, for an indefinite term. That gave stability and cumulative effectiveness to his work. It is for that reason that the Committee urges the adoption of the third recommendation below.

The members of the Committee whose one-year term expires with this Assembly are: Ministers—S. S. Palmer, D.D., and Paul B. Jenkins, D.D.; Ruling Elders—A. A. Loetscher and William R. Farrand.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

1. That the time of removing the office of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply be left to the discretion of the Committee.
2. That Presbyteries be urged to cooperate cordially with the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply in their efforts to organize and effectively administer the work committed to them by the General Assembly.
3. That the first half of Section 3 of the Plan adopted by the Assembly of 1912 for the guidance of this Committee be amended so as to read as follows:
The officers of the Permanent Committee shall be a Chairman, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and such others as may be necessary, and these, with the exception of the Corresponding Secretary, shall be elected annually.
4. That the Assembly recognizes the insistent demand from the Church that this problem be struggled with until solved, and that the plan adopted by the Assembly of 1912 is entitled to a thorough trial, continuing through a period of years, with adequate financial support.
5. That the Assembly approves the judgment of the Executive Commission in reckoning this Committee an administrative agency of the Church.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE N. LUCCOCK, Chairman.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY APPROVAL.

The above Report was approved in general by the Assembly in session at Atlanta, Ga., May, 1913. The action taken is recorded in the Assembly's Minutes.

FOREWORD.

In presenting the second annual Combined Statistical Report of the Boards and permanent agencies of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Joint Executive Committee representing the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, as well as the Boards and permanent agencies, desires to make grateful mention of the work of the late Rev. William H. Hubbard, D. D., the Secretary of the Joint Executive Committee. To his vision, energy, generosity and consecration is due no small measure of the success which has already crowned the united forward movement for benevolences and church support in the Presbyterian Church. The mantle left by Dr. Hubbard must fall upon other shoulders. God has translated his worker but will carry on his work. Out of the consciousness not only of a great loss, but of an insufficiency for the task which the genius of Dr. Hubbard had hitherto enabled the Joint Executive Committee to discharge, this volume is sent forth.

The various permanent Agencies of the Church extend their heartiest thanks to the churches that have contributed during the year.

Ministers, elders and, so far as they are interested, church members are invited to study the following tabulated figures. Apart from clerical errors, which it is hoped will be reduced to a minimum, the figures will indicate accurately how much money has been received from the churches by the treasurers of the various Boards and Permanent Agencies. It should be noted that the returns in the columns of the Minutes of the General Assembly are made by Clerks of Sessions through their presbyteries to the General Assembly. It is only fair both to the local church and to the Boards and Permanent Agencies that the latter should have the opportunity to certify the amounts actually received by them. In many cases the discrepancies are large and abnormal. Each minister and elder is asked to draw his own conclusions and to decide how far the discrepancy is wise and just.

Additional copies of this report may be secured from the office of the Joint Executive Committee upon the payment of thirty-five cents. (Postage stamps accepted.)

EXPLANATORY WORD.

The lists of clerks of Sessions of the Churches which appear in this report have either been furnished by the Stated Clerks of the several Presbyteries, or are taken from the Minutes of the Synods for the year 1912.

In combining into one exhibit the reports of contributions made directly to our nine Permanent Agencies, all contributions credited to organizations under the several Presbyteries which could not be identified with the list of churches of the Presbyteries as they appear in the Minutes of General Assembly for 1912, have been placed in the Appendix of the Report.

In reporting the contributions of churches of the various Permanent Agencies the fraction of a dollar has been omitted; where the contribution was fifty cents or over, a dollar has been added; where less than fifty cents, it has been dropped; contributions to any particular cause which have been less than fifty cents is indicated in the report by a dash.

In the Church Erection column:

- a. Indicates that the contributions are 10 per cent. of the grant received by the Church.
- b. In accordance with terms of mortgage.
- c. Refers to the list of repayments on Church mortgages.
- e. Refers to list of contributions to Manse Fund.
